

Disclaimer for RACEDAYS.DK events

Name:* _____ Date:* _____

Driver license No.:* _____ Driver No.: _____

Car/Motorbike model:* _____

Postal code:* _____ Nationality: _____ Phone No.: _____

* Has to be filled in

 Filled in by technical inspection at arrival

Security rules

- Reckless driving that is a danger to others or yourself, results in exclusion.

Responsibility statement

- Relating to this event, I accept with my signature at the bottom of this page the following statement:

Rules and safety manual

- I accept and declare myself in agreement with the current rules and safety instructions.
- My participation in the event is at my own risk.
- I am aware of with the risks regarding participation.
- I accept that if I do not respect the safety instructions and the driving regulations, it can lead to exclusion and banning from further participation in the event.
- There will be no financial compensation or any other form of compensation in the above mentioned cases. Also there will be no refund of participation fee.
- The driver must have a valid drivers licence, be sober and not be under influence of medication or other euphoriants.
- The starter is the head on the race track.
- Officials instructions must be respected at all times.
- Heating of tires must only take place in the starting area before the racing track.
- Tire burnout will result in immediate exclusion.
- The timekeeping equipment is infallible.

Driving regulations for Danish registered cars

- The total weight of the car must not exceed 3500 kg.
- The car must drive with the compulsory daytime light on in front as well as back.
- Only the enrolled driver is allowed to drive on the track.
- Safety helmet must be ECE approved and be worn before entering the starting area.
- During the break out time a warning is given, and after that it equals disqualification from the race, if break out is exceeded again.
- No spilling oil or liquids from the car at all.
- All driving must take place with minimum a 3-point seat belt.
- All windows and sunroofs must be rolled up during the race.
- No loose objects in the car.
- All batteries must be fixed.
- Tubes with fluids must not be found inside the passenger compartment, except for the car's heater.

Addition to cars without plates or foreign cars

- Fireproof gloves and drivers suit must be approved (FIA 8856-2000, 8855-2000, SFI 3.2, ISO6940) and worn before entering the starting area.

Driving regulations for motorbikes

- The motorbike must drive with the compulsory daytime light on in front as well as back.
- Only the enrolled driver is allowed to drive on the track.
- Safety helmet, driver's suit (full-length suit or coat and trousers), gloves and boots must be ECE marked and approved for motorbike. It must be worn before entering the starting area.
- During the break out time a warning is given, and after that it equals disqualification from the race, if break out is exceeded again.
- No spilling oil or liquids from the motorbike at all.
- All batteries must be fixed.

Coming and going at own risk

- In pit, on track and everywhere else, I come and go at my own risk.

Personal injury and damage material damage

- If acting reckless or incautious I take full responsibility for any damage I may cause to people and/or damage on materials belonging to other people.
- I take full responsibility for any kind of personal injury concerning myself, including whiplash and other injuries.
- I take full responsibility for any kind of material damage, that I have caused myself including damages on the track and/or track facilities.
- I take full responsibility for damages on the motor vehicle I use at the event.
- I take full responsibility for damages on my other belongings including car etc.
- I cannot advance a claim towards RACEDAYS.DK or others involved, for damages that I may get.

Damages or lost personal belongings

- I take full responsibility for my own belongings. No one else can be held responsible for theft or lost objects.

Personal condition

- I do not suffer from any illnesses, including epilepsy, diabetes or any other illness, that can influence my ability to drive in the event.
- I have not consumed any medicine, alcohol or other drugs, that can influence my driving.

Photo and film material

- I hereby give my full permission, that RACEDAYS.DK freely can use all photo and film material taken relating to the events of RACEDAYS.DK (Also for marketing and for advertising purposes in original or manipulated state).

Signature

I furthermore confirm with my signature, that I am of legal age, have valid drivers licence and that I have read everything above.

Date and signature: _____